2. TREMAINE FELLOWSHIPS 1990: CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

When Marie Tremaine died in 1984, she left the BSC/SBC a generous cash bequest and other benefits, "all to be held by the Society as an endowment, the income from said endowment to be used for such of the Society's purposes as its Council in its discretion may determine." Council has determined to use the income each year to fund Tremaine Fellowships in bibliographical research, including textual studies and publishing history, with a particular emphasis on Canada.

The Society will be awarding Tremaine Fellowships in 1990. Committee members are Geneviève Bazin, Mary Jane Edwards, and Michael Treadwell. An application form is included at the end of this issue of the Bulletin. The application deadline is February 28, 1990. Successful applicants will be announced April 30, 1990.

3. MARIE TREMAINE MEDAL: CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Marie Tremaine Medal is awarded by the BSC/SBC for outstanding service to Canadian bibliography and for distinguished publication in either English or French in that field. The Medal will be awarded in 1990, preferably to a member of the Society or to a Canadian citizen. Members of the Council of the Society are not eligible for the award while they are in office.

The Tremaine Medal Committee – Hugh Anson-Cartwright, Eric L. Swanick, Anne Yandle – now invites nominations for this award. Each nomination must be supported by a biographical note, a list of principal publications, and other relevant information, and be sent by February 15, 1990 to Eric L. 8. IN MEMORIAM

Three well-known members of the BSC/SBC died during 1989.

Bertha Bassam (1896-1989), one of the founding members of the Faculty of Library and Information Science at the University of Toronto, died in September at the age of 93. Miss Bassam held degrees from Queen's, Columbia, and Pratt universities, and was made an honorary LL.D. by the University of Waterloo in 1965.

William Cameron (1926-1989), a former director of the University of Western Ontario School of Library and Information Science (SLIS), died in April. A graduate of Victoria University in New Zealand, he also held degrees from Reading University in England in English Literature. He had also been a chairman of the department of modern language and literature at Western. In recognition of his contribution to libraries, and the broader academic community, SLIS has started a scholarship fund in his name and has renamed the school's special collections room after him.

Auguste-M. Morriset (1900-1989), bibliothécaire en chef de l'Université d'Ottawa de 1934 à 1959, et fondateur de l'Ecole de bibliothécaires de l'Université d'Ottawa en 1938, est décédé en juillet à l'âge de 88 ans. Il a dirigé l'Ecole de bibliothécaires jusqu'à sa retraite en 1971. Ordonné prêtre en 1927, il avait obtenu un B.A. et une L.D.C. de l'U d'O ainsi qu'un B.S. (LS) et une M.S. (LS) de l'Université Columbia. Décoré de l'Ordre du Canada en 1976, il était aussi récipiendaire d'une médaille Centenaire en 1967.

9. ONTARIO HERITAGE FOUNDATION RESEARCH/PUBLICATION FUNDS

The Ontario Heritage Foundation has recently announced the availability of funds for research projects and publications relating to Ontario's past. Grants of up to $2,000-$3,000 are available to support the technical aspects (duplication, typing, photography, etc.) of research projects, including bibliographies, in disciplines such as archaeology, architecture, art history, folklore, and history. The publications program offers a maximum award of $5,000-$7,000 to be used towards production costs of monographs, guides, and pamphlets. Projects in which the research has already been undertaken are not eligible. Research and publications must ultimately be intended for a general, rather than an academic, audience. Individuals, non-profit organizations and institutions, including historical societies and museums, are eligible to apply for both competitions. For further information contact The Ontario Heritage Foundation, 2nd Floor, 77 Bloor St., West, Toronto, Ont. M7A 2R9 (416-965-9504).

10. EDITION DATABASE CREATED

Zailig Pollock, of the Department of English, Trent University, has embarked on a project to create a database (called "Edition") to link up the community of textual scholars in Canada. The database, currently in the initial stages of development, will eventually consist of a list of completed works and works-in-progress, in French and English, of scholarly editions and critical studies relevant to the editing of Canadian texts. If you wish to be included in the database or to learn more about the project contact Prof. Zailig Pollock, Dept. of English, Trent University, Peterborough, Ont. K9H 2J8.

11. STUDIES IN CANADIAN LITERATURE/ETUDES EN LITTERATURE CANADIENNE

BSC/SBC member and editor of Studies in Canadian Literature Kathleen Scherf has sent out a call for submissions to that journal. Articles should be submitted in duplicate, with MLA format, in English, French, or both. Studies in Canadian Literature is published twice a year and is refereed by critics and authors from across the country. Subscriptions to Studies in Canadian Literature cost $14 per year ($16 for institutions) or $25 for two years. #### 12. BRAD SABIN HILL at the BRITISH LIBRARY

After ten years (1979-1989) as Curator of the Jacob M. Lowy Collection at the National Library of Canada, Brad Sabin Hill has accepted the position of Head of the Hebrew Section of the British Library (Oriental Collections). Mr. Hill studied at Brown University, Yeshiva University in New York, and McGill University. He has been largely responsible for making the Lowy Collection known to specialists in the field in Canada, the U.S., the U.K., and on the Continent. He has given several papers on Hebrew typography and publishing in Yiddish in Canada, and mounted two major displays, one at the National Library of Canada in 1981 and the other recently at Pierpont Morgan Library in New York.

The Lowy Collection of rare Hebraica and Judaica was acquired by the NLC as a gift from Jacob M. Lowy of Montreal in 1977. The original gift was augmented by some 800 volumes of rare books and reference literature also acquired from Mr. Lowy in 1985.

13. YOUR OLD BOOKS (Advice for the lay person from ACRL)

The Rare Books and Manuscripts Section of the Association of College and Research Libraries (American Library Association) has produced a 23-point brochure which attempts to answer some frequently asked questions about rare books and book values posed by persons outside the profession of librarianship and the rare book community. The brochure, entitled Your Old Books, provides information on rarity, scarcity, value (including associative), condition, formats and media (newspapers, magazines, comics, MSS, letters), selling, appraisal, and donation. Your Old Books costs $20 (US) for 50 brochures and can be ordered from ALA Graphics, American Library Association, 50 Huron St., Chicago Ill., USA, 60611. Single copies can be obtained by sending $1.00 and a self-addressed, stamped #10 envelope to the Association of College and Research Libraries, ALA, at the above address.

14. AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY

Marcus McCorison, director and librarian of the American Antiquarian Society and long-time member of the BSC/SBC, wishes to remind colleagues of the AAS's outstanding collections of Canadiana. During recent visits to Worcester, Canadian researchers have found important Thomas Chandler Haliburton materials, unique 19th century imprints, and previously unlocated 18th century titles.

A long-term project of particular importance is the NAIP (North American Imprints Program) which is recording North American (yes, Canadian, too) imprints held in the AAS and elsewhere (including Canadian repositories), first through 1800, and eventually to 1876.

The Society sponsors a range of research fellowships of one to three months' duration, for work in any area supported by the collection. As part of the Program in the History of the Book in American Culture there are lectures and conferences. To get an overview of the AAS consult the 175th anniversary guide Collections and Programs of the American Antiquarian Society (Worcester, AAS, 1987). For information (brochure, fellowships, newsletter) write to the AAS, 185 Salisbury St., Worcester, Mass. 01609-1634, USA.

NOTE:

I recently had occasion to use the Society's archives which are held at Queen's University to prepare the above list of past officers. Unfortunately there are large gaps in our history particularly for the early period. If any former Council member, or general member has any conference or Council minutes, correspondence or records, particularly for the period 1946 to 1955 would they please send them to Queen's University Archives, Kathleen Ryan Hall, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, K7L 3N6. Sandra Alston.
